Some of the tombstones have been left out of this information, on purpose. They are also not easily read by the naked eye.

REFERENCE NOTES:

1. We have tried to group obvious family units together. (Husband is first, with the wife or wives following below their husband. Then with any obvious children and other family members following that.) If the family plot has some type of border around it, then we have tried to include all graves within that border, under the head of the group.
2. Some of the grouped information has been put together by personal knowledge of the families who remain in this Church or Community today. This information is not always available on the tombstone itself.
3. Some of the tombstones only have reference to a specific person and a war that they were a part of. In these cases, only the information on their tombstone is included.
4. Some of the tombstones have more information than name, date of birth, and date of death. In those instances, we have added as much information as we deem pertinent to this project.
5. Some of the tombstones have conflicting or known inaccurate information. We have included footnotes to help explain these inaccuracies, to the best of our abilities.

①There is not a last name on the tombstone for Frances Jo. However, the obituary for Geneva F. Canaski, says she was predeceased by a daughter, "Frances Harris".

②Wentzky, Hurbert R., Jr.: Tombstone shows his first name spelled "Hurbert". It should be "Hubert", as is on his father's tombstone beside his.

③Wentzky, Larry G.: Date of Birth was put on tombstone as 1939. Actual date was 1938. The tombstone engraver tried to correct the mistake by changing the 9 to an 8.

④Wentzky, William, Sr.: Date of Death on Family Tombstone shows as the 23rd..... On the Military Tombstone shows the 22nd..... The actual Date of Death is the 23rd, per the South Carolina Death Index, his Probate Court estate file, and his obituary.
