Gratitude Corner: Notes we received from:

Major Joseph Irvin, The Salvation Army

“Dear Midway Presbyterian Church, Please accept our thanks on behalf of those who have benefitted from your generosity. Your generous support enables the Salvation Army to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and meet human need in His name. This past year the Salvation Army in Anderson County provided 469 persons with 14,000 nights lodging and 15,000 meals at our Stringer Emergency Lodge. At Christmas we provided almost 1,000 children with toys and clothing through our Angel Tree program. In addition to these services we provided over $46,000 in direct assistance for rent, utilities, prescriptions and other needs through our social services office. It was so good to have worshipped together.

Dr. Danny Varat, CEO, Safe Harbor

“Dear Friends, Thank you so much for your generous gift. Your support enables us to continue providing critical and life-changing services to survivors of domestic abuse in the Upstate. Safe Harbor provides emergency shelter to adults and children fleeing abuse, clinical therapy and case management to survivors of abuse, education on domestic abuse to schools and other community organizations and affordable housing programs to survivors as they start a new life.

Angela Stringer, Cancer Association of Anderson

Dear Midway Presbyterian Church, On behalf of the Cancer Association of Anderson and our patients, I thank you for your gift. Because of generous donors like you, our patients can receive up to $1,200 in financial assistance each year in addition to educational, physical, and emotional support.
